

GIC Presents: “Financial Interdependence in the World’s Post-Crisis Capital Markets”
2010 International Conference Series • Part III - Philadelphia
March 3, 2010

Join GIC as we continue our 2010 Global Conference Series in Philadelphia! In partnership with the CFA Society of Philadelphia, the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia, and Philadelphia Council of Business Economics, this half-day conference will focus on the rebuilding of capital markets in the post-financial crisis environment. Confirmed speakers include:

- Keynote Speech presented by Eric Rosengren, President of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston
- Larry Kantor, Head of Global Research, Barclays Capital
- David Kotok, GIC Program Chair and CIO, Cumberland Advisors
- Mark Zandi, Chief Economist, Moody’s Economy.com,
- Vince Farrell, Chief Investment Officer, Soleil Securities
- John D. Rogers, President & Chief Executive Officer, CFA Institute
- John Staley of Staley Capital Advisers, Inc
- Frank Hatheway, Senior Vice President, NASDAQ OMX

WHEN: Wednesday, March 3, 2010
7:30am - Registration
8:00am - Program
1:00pm Lunch

WHERE: Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia • 6th & Arch Streets, Philadelphia, PA

PRICE: $75 • GIC Members & Partners:$55 • Students: $35

REGISTER: Please visit our website to register.

GIC gratefully acknowledges the following companies for their financial support of the 2010 Global Conference Series

